Early Sunday morning two ruffians, named William Stripp and William Cunningham, broke into a room occupied by a lady in the Branch Totline Hotel, corner of Courtland and West streets, New York, knocked her down, and kicked her in a most shocking manner. Stripp was arrested, but Cunningham escaped. No cause is assigned for the outrage.

The correspondence has been published relative to the case of Michael O'Brien, an American citizen. He was arrested in Liverpool on suspicion of being a Fenian and brutally treated at his trial. He was acquitted and the case laid before the American Consul at Liverpool, claiming compensation for false imprisonment. The case was referred to Minister Adams, who returned the papers with the intimation that that the Home Government had better be consulted.

A State Convention of Fenians will be held at Chicago to-day, and a large attendance is expected. Seventy-five circles will be represented.

PORTLAND, March 11.—The steamer North American, from Liverpool on the 28th, and Londonderry on the 1st, arrived safe this afternoon.

The reform prospects continued the leading theme of the press. The Government's withdrawal of the resolutions, and the promised introduction of the bill, met all that was demanded by the Liberals, and details are awaited with much interest.

The reform league show signs of increased agitation. They adopted resolutions for a mass meeting in Trafalgar square, on the evening of March 11th, with district meetings in the interval, and also one inviting the people of London to assemble in Hyde Park, for the purpose of action, on good Friday.

In the House of Commons a bill, having for its object the throwing open of the offices of Lord Chancellor of England and Ireland, and Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to Roman Catholics and Jews, by amending the oath required, was passed to a second reading by 102 majority, as was also another bill opening the Professorship in Dublin University to Roman Catholics.

An arrangement has been effected between the Prussian government and the Duke of Nassau, and it was reported an understanding was almost concluded between the Prussians and the ex-king of Hanover.

The Emperor of Austria, in an Imperial patent dated 26th February, dissolves the Bohemian Diet, and orders a fresh election immediately. The reasons assigned in the patent for the dissolution are that the resolutions adopted by the majority of the Assembly if they received imperial sanction, would prostrate the successful settlement of the constitutional relations of monarchy. The Corrital of Agram has resolved to send a protest to the Emperor against the scheme of military organization, and insisting on the integrity of Croatia.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Gen. Sheridan Orders the Election Not to be Held—Riotous Indications and Preparations to Avoid Trouble.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The Times' Washington special thus states the situation in New Orleans prior to General Sheridan's order prohibiting the election. There being indications of a riot, Gen. Sheridan made all necessary preparations to meet and suppress any disturbance. He has four regiments, two batteries of artillery and a battalion of cavalry, together with Generals Mower, Kautz and Baldy Smith in the city, ready to take part in any hostilities. The trouble originated in the fact that Governor Wells recognized the Reconstruction bill, considered the State Government reduced to a Provisional Government, and himself to be Military Governor only. The municipal authorities, however, did not recognize this change, inasmuch as the Reconstruction bill had not yet been read in official form, and Mayor Monroe and Chief of Police Adams ordered the police to obey no orders not issued by them.

Private information received at Washington from New Orleans says that Mayor Monroe ordered the police not to obey orders except from him. Governor Wells and the recorders, or police justices, ordered the police not to obey orders except from them. Governor Wells claims that the disqualifications of the reconstruction act shall be enforced, and freedmen shall be allowed to vote. Mayor Monroe claims that the law is not yet in force. A later dispatch says that the election is proceeding quietly to-day, but the negroes are not voting with the white men. A riot is expected to grow out of this trouble.

An election for City Councilmen was to take place on Monday, and Gov. Wells, in his proclamation, ordered that the freedmen enfranchised under the reconstruction bill should vote, and the class disfranchised should not vote. Here was an opportunity for a re-enactment of the former riots, but Sheridan's order postponing the election until the District Commander is appointed under the reconstruction bill or special instructions concerning the case are received, has restored order.

Military Reconstruction Commandants.

JOHN MINOR BOTTS AND VIRGINIA.

Difficulty Between General Grant and the President.

THE QUESTION OF RECESS.

Caucus of Republican Senators.

WASHINGTON, March 11, 1867.

ELIGIBILITY OF GENERAL SICKLES.

Under a more careful reading of the Reconstruction Bill, it is not required that the Commandants shall be Generals of the Regular army, therefore General Sickles is eligible. There is reason to believe Generals Sherman, Meade, Hancock, Schofield and Sickles will be selected. This does not affect Generals Thomas and Sheridan in their Department commands.

JOHN MINOR BOTTS.

John Minor Botts has written a letter, under date of March 7th, to a prominent Congressman, in which he states that the rebel Legislature of Virginia will fix the first Tuesday in May for a Convention, and that the rebel forces are thoroughly organized, and will certainly control the Convention, unless a registry law and provisions for voting by ballot are provided at the present session of Congress. He says not one-fifth of the colored people are aware of their right to vote at the ensuing election, and the Union people implore Congress not to adjourn before providing the legislation suggested.

THE DISTRICT MARSHALSHIP.

One of the provisions of an act passed during the last hours of the Thirty-Ninth Congress provides for the appointment of a United States Marshal for the District of Columbia by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court instead of by the President as at present.

GEN. GRANT AND THE PRESIDENT.

An Evening Chronicle special says: The difficulty between the President and Gen. Grant relative to the appointment of the Southern commanders continues. The General wants the act executed at once, but the President is waiting for something to turn up apparently. As the matter now stands, the officers for command of districts will be Generals Sherman, Meade, Hancock Schofield and Sickles. The arrangement will not effect General Thomas in the command of his Department, nor probably Gen. Sheridan, both of whom have departments under their control.

THE CONGRESSIONAL RECESS.

The Republican members of the Senate held a caucus this morning and agreed not to fix a time for adjournment or recess until Congress shall have passed the proposed bill supplementary to the Reconstruction act, and until time is given for the President to act upon such measure, as the Constitution allows ten days for Executive consideration, and as the bill is not yet passed, it would seem that Congress does not contemplate taking recess for at least two weeks. With regard to the time to which recess will extend, the caucus took no definite action, but the opinion seems to prevail among the Senators that it will be until October.

COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION.

The President has appointed Dr. Barnard, of Connecticut, Commissioner of Education.

Indiana Legislature Adjourned.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 11.—The Indiana Legislature adjourned sine die to-day, after a session of sixty days. A large number of important laws passed during the session, among which a registry law for the protection of the ballot box, new congressional and legislative apportionment bills, law to punish bolting in the Legislature, and a law for the establishment of a house of refuge for juvenile offenders. The question of locating an agricultural college, and disposing of congressional land grants for that purpose, failed. The amount of money appropriated in general and specific appropriation bills amounts to $1,369,000.

THE BUTLER COUNTY HOMICIDE.

Trial of J. B. Adlington for the Murder of Sydney B. Cunningham and James H. Teeples.

SATURDAY MORNING, March 9th, 1867.

John B. Adlington, the prisoner, was brought into Court by the Sheriff.

The Clerk called over the panel of jurors, when all but four answered to their names. Proclamation was then made that jurors would be impanelled to try John B. Adlington. The following are the names of the jurors impanelled:

THE JURY.

1 John S. Douthett, of Adams township.
2 Thomas G. Craig, Borough of Millerstown.
3 Philip Burtner, Borough of Saxonburgh.
4 John H. Christley, Slippery rock township.
5 Thomas Vandyke, Marion township.
6 Peter Fennell, Jr., Clearfield township.
7 Robert Trimble, Middlesex township.
8 John Hetselgeper, Winfield township.
9 William McElvaine, Penn township.
10 Henry H. Bear, Jefferson township.
11 Jacob Croup, Butler township.
12 John Q. A. Kennedy, Penn township.

The whole time of the Court, up to 12½ o'clock P. M., was occupied in impanelling nine jurors, when the Clerk announced the panel exhausted, and the Court said they would issue a precept for calling in talesmen to fill up the jury in the afternoon, and the Court adjourned to meet at 2 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Court met pursuant to adjournment. John B. Adlington, the prisoner, was brought into court by the Sheriff. He is usually attended in court, by his wife, children and a lady relative.

The jury—the nine selected—were brought into court by the constables, and after being seated in the box, the Clerk called their names, when all were found to be present. The Court then issued a precept to the Clerk to call talesmen. The doors of the Court room were closed and guarded. The Sheriff commenced his selections, and it was ten minutes to five o'clock, p. m., before the jury was complete and sworn.

The clerk of the Court then read the indictment.

It charges the prisoner, John B. Adlington, in the usual legal verbiage, with the murder of Sydney B. Cunningham, at the borough of Portersville, in the county of Butler, on the 24th of December, 1866, by stabbing him in the left side, the knife penetrating upwards between the lower ribs into the chest, inflicting a mortal wound of the breadth one and a quarter inch and of the depth of four and a half inches, causing instant death. The indictment avers that the accused held the knife in his right hand.

After reading the indictment, the Clerk said:—Upon this indictment John B. Adlington has been arraigned, and thereupon hath pleaded not guilty; and for his trial hath put himself upon God and his country, which country you are. So that your charge is to inquire whether he be guilty in manner and form as he stands indicted.

Judge McGuffin, at the suggestion of members of the bar, remarked that it was now near dark; the room had been crowded all week; the atmosphere was stifling and unwholesome; the Court, bar, jury, witnesses—everybody was weary with the week's fatigue. He would, therefore, say a few words of caution to the jury, and adjourn till 9 A. M. of Monday.

The jury was cautioned against conversing with any one on this subject; or of reading newspaper comments. They would be kept together in a room; but should be provided with every comfort. They might read books or write to their friends on business. They could read any papers which contained nothing relating to this trial. They could not go to church. The Constables were strictly charged to see that they had everything to render them comfortable, at the county's expense; but to keep them aloof from contact with the public.

Court adjourned.

Daring Burglary in Mount Washington Borough.

There seems to be no end to the burglaries committed in this city and vicinity, and no limit to the range which the operators give their enterprise. Now we are startled by the report of their nefarious work in the heart of the city; the next day comes an equally startling report from Allegheny; now the perpetrators leave their traces in one borough and again in another. A few days since three burglaries were reported in East Liberty; and so it goes with scarcely an intermission. So rapid and alert are the scoundrels, that the officers have scarcely commenced looking for them at the scene of their newest exploit, before they turn up at the opposite extreme of the neighborhood.

On Sunday night the quiet and seldom heard of borough of Mount Washington was made the theatre of a burglarious performance. Some time during the night stated—the hour cannot be fixed with any accuracy, so startled and excited was the only person who had the opportunity of judging—the house of John Cregan, Esq., Tax Collector in the borough of Mount Washington, was entered by two men, who gained entrance through the back door of the building. They ransacked the lower part of the house, but did little harm there, beyond "tearing up" the arrangements of the household. They then went up stairs to the sleeping room of John Cregan, Jr. Mr. Cregan is a discharged soldier, and is at present employed in a rolling mill in the vicinity. He has recently received one hundred dollars of his bounty, and the check for this amount was in his room. The robbers seem to have been aware of this fact, and to gain possession of this check was apparently the object of their visit. At all events they took it.

Mrs. Hillyer, a lady of this city, was sleeping in the house, in a room not far removed from young Mr. Cregan's, and heard a noise which led her to believe that all was not right. She made a movement to ascertain the cause of the noise, and the robbers, hearing the stir, immediately entered her room. Finding her awake and disposed to make a disturbance, they threatened her with instant death unless she remained perfectly quiet, and to give greater force to their threats, one of them drew a knife and told her he would cut her throat if she moved or cried out. The fellows then ransacked her room, but they took nothing. On going out they repeated their threats if she should raise any alarm. They seem to have left the house immediately after this, and the fact of Mrs. Hillyer's having been awake is probably the reason of their suspending their depredations without waiting to explore further. As it is they took nothing of importance, save the check mentioned. Mrs. H. alarmed the household soon after the burglars had left her room, but the villains had made good their escape. They were strangers to Mrs. H., and no clue to their identity remains. We most earnestly hope that the rascals may be captured.

A Criminal Wife—A Pending Divorce.

The details of another case of domestic infelicity peculiarly aggravated in its character, and involving several parties well known to our citizens, have recently come to our knowledge. It is a fresh development of a phase of the "social evil" which is becoming frightfully prominent in these days, and which calls for most active and energetic measures of reform, if there be any measures of reform which are capable of reaching it. The crime of domestic incontinence, which has grown from an exceptional to an almost general crime, occasions, if possible, a still more pressing need for legal, social and moral action, than the wide spread vice of licentiousness which has always cursed all great cities.

The case to which we refer will probably soon be made public through the Courts. Meanwhile, withholding for the present the names of the parties concerned, we give a brief statement of the facts: The leading partner in a well-known firm in this city has a wife who is beautiful and well qualified to please in society. Her husband's position and her own attractions made her welcome in the "best society," and she has hitherto mingled freely therein. She made the acquaintance of several fast young men of the "upper circles," and some time ago, as it seems, became regardless of her own womanly character and her husband's honor, and became criminally intimate with some of these acquaintances. Her criminal kindness, it seems, was not granted to one or two, but to quite a large number, some of whose names, if published, would set Dame Gossip's tongue wagging for a week. The lady's husband at length learned his dishonor by proofs too strong to be gainsaid. He decided on a legal separation as the only remedy left to him, and immediately set about instituting the necessary steps to obtain a divorce. The wife, as we are informed, does not deny her guilt, and will not resist the divorce; but she insists that it shall be obtained quietly with as little publicity as possible. The husband, on the other hand, demands that his wife's whole course of crime shall be laid before the public in the Court proceedings, and even that she shall make a confession, a la Mrs. Sickles, to be publicly used in the Court. He moreover is determined that all the partners in her guilt shall be summoned as witnesses in the case. She refuses to comply with these demands, and so the matter rests at present.

The unhappy couple are living separated at present, and their children have been sent away to a boarding school in preparation for the impending results. We shall probably be able to lay still further facts before our readers soon.

Bold Burglary in Allegheny—Stolen Goods Recovered.

The residence of Mrs. Hill, on River Avenue, below Anderson street, Allegheny, was burglariously entered by thieves on Sunday evening last. They obtained ingress to the home by placing a tub beneath a back window, and standing upon it, were enabled to hoist and climb through it into the back parlor. They leisurely proceeded to gather up such valuables they could find in the way of ladies clothing, silver service, jewelry, &c., and deposited all upon the piano. It is presumed that they were alarmed and fled before accomplishing their plans, as they left all the plunder in the parlor, with the exception of a valuable velvet sacque, belonging to a member of the family. Yesterday morning, information of the burglary was made, and detective Long proceeded to look up the missing sacque. It was found in a pawnbrokers office on Smithfield street, where it had been left at seven o'clock yesterday morning by a young man who received twelve dollars upon it as a pawn. No clue further than the discovery of the sacque has as yet been discovered of the perpetrators of this bold robbery.

Military Naval and Claim Agency.

To readers who may have any collectable claims upon the Government in the way of bounties, pensions, back pay, claims for indemnity and prize money, or officers claims for servants' pay, would do well to favor Messrs. Day and Dunn, 103 Fifth street, with them for collection. Possessing facilities obtained by long application to and experience in the business, they are able to inform the claimant at once whether his claim is collectable, and if it is, will secure payment in the least possible time. We cheerfully recommend this firm to the patronage of our soldier friends, and to all interested in claims upon the Government. They are responsible, fair dealing and honorable gentlemen, and all business entrusted to them will be attended to in a prompt manner.

Slackwater.

We have mentioned the project by which it was proposed to effect slackwater navigation to Morgantown. The Morgantown Post has the following concerning it: By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the commissioners appointed by the new charter will meet on Monday, the 11th day of March, for the purpose of organizing and opening books of subscription. We hope there will be a meeting of all the commissioners, and that they will at once put the work in motion. Our dam should be built the coming summer, and can be, if the proper means are used. Let us have the river improved at once. The money is awaiting the books. The people are anxious for it. A little "filthy lucre" is nothing compared to an easy access to the Pittsburgh market. Let us have it.

Attempted Outrage on a Female.

The Allentown Dispatch says: Last night, shortly after nine o'clock, as a young woman, serving in a family on Fourth street, was passing along that street, when near the foot of Linden she was suddenly seized by a burly ruffian who placed one of his hands over her mouth, and then attempted to drag her into an open lot, close by. Her cries of murder attracted the attention of the people living in the neighborhood, and some of them coming to her rescue, the villain relinquished his hold and sought safety in flight. Suspicion rests upon some one and we hope the guilty party, whoever he may be, will be brought to justice.

At Home.—John G. Brown, Esq., the present very efficient Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions, absent at Butler last week on Court business, has returned, and resumed the duties of his office.

An Allegheny Business House—Groceries and Glasswares, Lamps and Chandeliers—Arthur Kirk, Nos. 172 and 174 Federal Street.

Perseverance, application and close attention to business, aided by a nice sense of honor and fair dealing are sure to win success and prosperity to the tradesman or merchant.

Numerous examples of self-made men are to be found in this neighborhood—men who have commenced life without a farthing, but overcoming all difficulties, have made their way up to the highest walks of life. Such are invariably cited as the representative men of business, those whom the young should imitate for they are living examples of what perseverance, industry and honest business tact will accomplish when rightly directed. In a trip of observation through Allegheny we were impressed with the idea that all business men might be prosperous if they would follow in the track or system laid down by their fortunate neighbors. It does not do to rest upon our oars and trust to luck, for luck shuns all who have no reliance in their own capacities. We must move, put out our best endeavors, be active, energetic, enterprising and always have a close watch upon our affairs, if we would be successful. We have already noted some of the retail houses which have sprung up in our sister city which stand to day as formidable rivals to establishments in Pittsburgh, and to day will direct attention to the now well known and popular house of Mr. Arthur Kirk, Nos. 172 and 174 Federal street. A few years ago this house with several others was actively engaged in the task of keeping home trade from finding its way to this side of the water. This was a difficult matter to accomplish, as it was hard to make the purchasing community believe that Allegheny could vie and compete successfully with her more opulent neighbors of Pittsburgh. True, sensible people at once recognized the enterprise of spirited and progressive merchants, and bestowed upon them their patronage, but it was some time before the masses were educated to the fact that it was to their advantage to buy on that side of the water. Gradually the prejudices of folks were overcome, and the small stores well managed were the recipients of an immense patronage, and were soon transformed into extensive business marts. Mr. Kirk's house stands as an example. Of comparatively humble beginning a few years ago, it has grown to be one of the largest and most prosperous retail business places of either city. The secret of its prosperity is not hidden. Mr. Kirk managed at all times to keep on hands just such stocks of goods as would please and satisfy his customers; he made it an invariable rule to sell at reasonable prices, as cheap as the prime cost and small marginal profit would permit; he advertised his wares judiciously and offered no inducement to trade which he could not carry out; so that customers making one purchase at the house would invariably return again when in need of any article in his line. Thus was the popularity of "Kirk's store" built up, and thus it is retained. In our visit to the establishment yesterday we found the clerks busily employed in stowing away original packages of green and black teas, which had just arrived fresh from the importers hands. Being somewhat a taster of the article, we examined several specimens and unhesitatingly pronounce the teas kept by Mr. Kirk as very superior, and only marvel that his prices are so low, (as will be seen by his advertisement elsewhere). But he has made a speciality in teas, coffee and sugar and is determined that his stock will equal in quantity, quality and price any found here or elsewhere. The stock of choice groceries, everything usually kept for family use is large and choice, and housekeepers can, purchase no where else to better advantage. We feel, however, that it is useless for us to speak in particular terms of Mr. Kirk's stock of groceries as nearly all of our readers are already sufficiently informed upon the subject. Another specialty in this store is the select stock of table glass, lamps, chandaliers, pendants, globes, &c., &c. No where in the two cities is a better stock kept of lamps and fine pressed and cut glasswares. In the neat sample room attached to the store are many different styles of lamps, some really beautiful specimens, which would prove fitting ornaments for the luxurious apartments of a king. Housekeepers can be supplied with any and every article in this line at very reasonable prices, while dealers who buy to sell again will be furnished at rates as low as the manufacturer's. Elegant chandeliers, so constructed as to be used for either gas or oil are also to be found here, embracing all the latest and most fashionable of eastern styles. We observed patent oil lamps suspended from pulleys and easily lowered and hoisted, patent self-lighting lamps and numerous other articles in this line which will commend themselves to the housekeeper, and dealer. Upon the whole the stock of teas, general groceries, gas and oil chandaliers and lamps, cut glassware, &c., found at Mr. Kirk's, is equal to that found anywhere in the two cities, while the range of prices is most reasonable and inducing. We commend this house to the attention of the purchasing community, knowing that an examination of the stock will secure increased patronage. The proprietor studies to please all who may call and there is no charge for showing goods. Remember the place, No's. 172 and 174 Federal street, Allegheny.

Twenty-third District Appointments.

At the Republican nomination held at Shaw's Mill, in Shaler township, on Saturday evening last—J. S. Smith, Esq., President, and R. Howard, Secretary—the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we recognize as bona fide Republicans, those who cordially endorse the policy of Congress towards the States late in rebellion in opposition to "my policy" of giving them representation without any guarantees for their future conduct.

Resolved, That Congress has our heartiest thanks for passing the Military Reconstruction Bill over the veto of acting President Johnson, thus placing the Southern States in a situation to obtain representation by recognizing that all men are free and equal without regard to color or nationality.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Congressional district are due to the Senate of the United States in refusing to confirm appointments made by the President in this district, for the sole purpose of dragooning the people into a support of his measures, the appointees either being fresh from the purlieus of democracy or renegade republicans who sold their political principles for the "five loaves and two fishes" of official salary.

Real Estate Savings Bank.

The card of the reliable and perfectly safe Real Estate Savings Bank, 63 Fourth street, appears in another column. The business of this Company is conducted upon correct principles, and in no department is there any lack of care or ability in its management. No where in the city are more favorable inducements offered to depositors, particularly to those who are of limited means, as interest at the rate of six per cent. is semi-annually compounded upon all deposits, free of Government tax. The following gentlemen are the Trustees, and a mere glance at the names will suffice to show the safety of the Bank as a place for deposit: Hon. Thomas M. Howe, Isaac Jones, W. B. Copeland, Harvey Childs, Hon. J. K. Moorhead, C. G. Hussey, Jacob Hussey, Jacob Painter, Nicholas Voeghtley and W. H. Smith. A. A. Carrier is the Secretary and Treasurer, from whom all information may be obtained upon application at the office, 63 Fourth street.

Burglary on Liberty Street.

A burglary, daring enough in its conception and execution but with exceedingly small results, was perpetrated on Sunday night in this city. Yesterday morning it was discovered that an entrance had been gained to the rear of Messrs. Head and Metzgar's wholesale grocery store, at No. 253 Liberty street, by boring through one of the doors. Investigation showed that the safe, containing a large amount of money and bonds, had been tampered with, and violent efforts made to open it, but they were ineffectual. They had probably been frightened away before accomplishing their purpose, and all they realized by their enterprise was forty-eight cents. They evidently had a very narrow escape from making a very large haul. No trace of the thieves has been obtained.

Partnership Dissolved.

Elsewhere we publish the dissolution of the firm of Dunseath & Company, the favorably known jewelers. Mr. J. L. Dunseath, now of the firm of F. Sellers & Company, Pork Packers, has disposed of his interest to the remaining members of the firm Messrs. William G. Dunseath and George W. Haslett, who will continue the business under the same name and style of firm at their well established stand, No. 56 Fifth street. The firm have now on hand a large and carefully selected stock of watches, clocks, general jewelry and fancy goods, which they are enabled to sell to at a great advantage to purchasers. Give them a call for anything in the jewelry line.

No More Racing.—The managers of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society have recently resolved to offer no more premiums for fast horses, and there is a strong feeling in favor of excluding all monstrosities, mountebanks and side shows from their exhibition grounds hereafter. This is all right, but it will very much detract from the excitement and interest of the Fair.

Railroad Business.—The Columbus (O.) Journal says: The business on the railroads is again becoming active. Much freight is being transported and travel has reached the old standard. The canal is open and in working order to Chillicothe, but business as yet is only moderate. Before next week it is thought the regular and extensive business will be resumed.

Fire in South Pittsburgh.

This morning, at about two o'clock, a fire was discovered issuing from the three story brick dwelling, recently occupied as a residence by Oliver Adams, a colored blacksmith in South Pittsburgh. Efforts were made to check the flames, but they had gained such headway before being discovered that it was found impossible to stop their progress, and in a very short time the building was one mass of fire. The house was entirely destroyed, but so far as we could learn, the surrounding buildings escaped. A short time since a landslide occurred in the rear of the house, and Mr. Adams' family becoming alarmed for the safety of the building he moved out of it a few days ago. More recently he sold it for a considerable amount to a gentleman in the country. The latter was making arrangements to move into it, but fortunately had not yet occupied it. The loss on the building will reach to between two and three thousand dollars, and is covered by insurance. The fire was undoubtedly an incendiary one, as the house was unoccupied, and there has been no fire in it for some time. It will be remembered that Mr. Adams' blacksmith shop was a short time since destroyed by fire—also the work of an incendary.

Coroner's Inquests.

Robert S. Haslett, a prisoner in the county jail, committed from the Mayor's office on Sunday, for drunkenness, was found dead in his cell on Monday morning. He complained of illness, difficulty in breathing, during Sunday night, and was permitted to exercise in the hall. An inquest being held by Coroner Clawson, at which Dr. McCandless, jail physician, was summoned, the jury found that death resulted from intemperance, or convulsions caused thereby. Deceased was about thirty-five years of age and unmarried. He will be buried to-day from the house of his brother-in-law, Mr. Haslett, on Crawford street. The deceased was formerly employed in a jewelry store in the city.

The Coroner was also called, yesterday, to hold an inquest upon the body of David Thompson, colored, at No. 129 Crawford street. Deceased had been suffering, according to Dr G. H. McNary's testimony, from pulmonary disease for some time, and his death resulted therefrom on Sunday afternoon. The jury found that death resulted from natural causes.

The Sequel.

It will be remembered that about a month ago Mrs. Kate V. Close made information before Alderman Donaldson, charging Geo. Bechtel, an attendant in a Smithfield street grocery, with throwing boiling water on her little boy as he was scraping some sugar out of a hogshead on the sidewalk. The defendant in that case yesterday came before Alderman M'Masters and made information against Kate V. Close and Alderman James Donaldson, charging them with obtaining money under false pretences. He alleges that the water thrown upon the child was not hot enough to scald it, but that the mother, by dressing the head with cloths and oil, as if it were badly burned, made him believe, with the assistance of Alderman Donaldson, that he had severely injured the child and would have to go "across the river." With this belief he paid a hundred dollars to settle the case, and of this the magistrate and the woman each got half, as Bechtel alleges. Warrants were issued, and we shall await the hearing of the case with considerable interest.

Bottled Ales and Mineral Waters.

Elsewhere will be found the advertisement of Messrs. J. C. Buffum & Co., bottlers of ales and soda waters, Nos. 22 and 24 Market street. No other house in the country enjoys such a wide spread reputation for the quality of the beverages turned out, as this, and perhaps the trade is as extensively carried on here as at any other place in the Union. The ales are the very best brewed, are selected with great good care, and are everywhere recommended by practising physicians. The soda waters are of the purest quality, contain nothing injurious, and as a temperance drink are quite inviting. Orders from any quarter are promptly attended to and shipments are made at the slightest notice. Messrs. Buffum & Co., who monopolize their particular trade in this locality, are deserving of the increased popularity their bottled ales and mineral waters have obtained, as they are careful, energetic and fair dealing business men, in every way worthy the confidence of the community and patronage of the public.

Misdemeanor.

R. C. Howard, a livery stable keeper on First street, near the Monongahela house, came before Alderman McMasters yesterday, and charged James McPherson and John W. Faas with misdemeanor, in violating the Act of Assembly, passed in 1863, relating to Livery Stable Keepers. He alleges that on the 5th instant the defendants hired from his stable a barouche and two horses, and while the property was in their possession, they used it recklessly and maliciously, abusing the horses and breaking a whalebone whip which belonged to the establishment. The parties were arrested and held for a further hearing on Friday of this week.

Mitchell, the St. Louis Shover.

We gave, some days since, the particulars of the arrest in this city, of John C. Mitchell, by Assistant U. S. Marshall O'Reilly, of St. Louis. Mitchell, it will be remembered, was arrested in St. Louis, for dealing in counterfeit money, "cut" his bail and fled to this city. The Missouri Democrat says that, on his return to that city, the prisoner was taken into court before Judge Treat, who fixed his bond at $10,000, in default of which he was committed to jail, where he will likely remain until the next term of the United States District Court.

Alleged Larceny.—Peter Kelly states that on the 5th inst., he was drunk and while in that condition he entered the tavern of John Coursin, on Market street. While there he alleges that the proprietor, taking advantage of his condition, took from him thirty six dollars in money which he had in his possession. Kelly made oath to these representations before Alderman Strain. A warrant was issued and the accused was arrested. He had a partial hearing yesterday and was held to bail, in the sum of $500 for a further hearing on the 18th inst.

A Mean Deceiver.—It is mean enough for a man to promise to marry a woman and then to refuse to fulfil his promise. But if Anna Ziegler tells a true story, she has found meaner meanness than that in her lover. She came before Alderman Taylor yesterday and made information against Bernard Zahninger for larceny as bailee. She stated that Bernard promised to marry her, and then procured sixteen dollars of her money. Subsequently he refused utterly to marry her, and more than that, refused also to return her sixteen dollars.

The Sheriffalty Redivivus.—In the Court of Quarter Sessions yesterday forenoon, Judges Sterrett and Mellon on the bench, a partial argument was heard on the motion for a rule to show cause why a writ of quo warranto should not issue against S. B. Cluley, Esq., Sheriff of the county. Messrs. Kerr and Roberts argued in behalf of the motion, and T. M. Marshall, Esq., in opposition. The argument will be concluded at an early day by James Veech, Esq., who is at present absent from the city.

Munro's German Series, No. 2. A class book for the German language.—W. A. Gildenfenny.

Discharged.—Michael Coward, the keeper of a hotel on Grant street, near Sixth, had a hearing yesterday before Alderman McMasters on a charge of larceny preferred against him, as already noticed, by Henry Lake, who alleged that defendant opened his trunk and stole therefrom "five or six pounds worth" of clothing, &c. There was no evidence to support the charge, and the case was dismissed.

The New Engine.—The magnificent new steam fire engine of the Vigilant Company will have its merits fully tested this afternoon, at two o'clock, at the corner of Market and Water streets. Mr. Bear, Superintendent of the Amoskeag Works, where the engine was built, is in the city and will supervise the operations of testing. The new machine is said to work splendidly.

Released on Bail.—Tony Snyder, committed to jail by Alderman McMasters, to await his trial for aggravated assault and battery on a colored boy named Washington Miles, obtained the necessary bail yesterday and was released.

Morrow & Barnhill.—The card of Morrow & Barnhill, the well known Boiler makers and sheet iron workers, proprietors of the O'Hara boiler works, corner of Second and Liberty streets, appears in another column.

Fragrant Fun.—In Erie catching skunks has become a favorite amusement, as we learn from the Dispatch. There is no accounting for taste or smell.

Painting up.—In all quarters of the two cities painters are at work renovating and improving with paint, stores, warehouses and dwellings.

The Jail is in excellent sanitary condition.

Larceny of Coopers' Tools.—For some time past, Mr. John Dixon, a cooper in the Second ward, Allegheny, has missed tools from his shop at intervals, but has not been able to discover who were the authors of the depredations. On Sunday a large hammer, worth seventy-five cents, was stolen, and Mr. Dixon saw a boy, named George Newman, in company with another boy, going away from the shop, and believes that Newman had the hammer. He accordingly made information before Mayor Morrison, charging the boy with the larceny. A warrant was issued, and officer Hess yesterday succeeded in arresting young Newman, and locked him up for a hearing. The boy protests his innocence and says that he was not at the cooper shop on Sunday at all.

Allegheny Common Cases.—On Sunday there were five common cases before Mayor Morrison. James Reed, arrested by officer Campbell, on Federal street, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was fined two dollars. George Aman, arrested by officer Ecke for gross disorderly conduct in a house on the corner of First and Middle streets, on Saturday night, was fined five dollars. Robert Breistline, found by officer Sprague in a drunken sleep in a dry goods box on Federal street, was fined one dollar and a half. Two other drunken ones, picked up in the gutter, were fined the usual amounts and dismissed.

Singular.—Yesterday morning, on the premises where stood the residence of Thos. Scott, Esq., near East Liberty, was found a brown envelope which was found to contain an excellently executed counterfeit one hundred dollar bill on the Central National Bank of New York. The envelope had evidently been dropped by the incendiaries in their flight. The bill was one of the best executed counterfeits that has been put in circulation. When the fire was first discovered the back doors of the house were all found to be open.

Large Important Sales of Real Estate.—A Leggate, Auctioneer, will sell on Thursday the 14th inst., at ten o'clock, on the respective premises, the valuable real estate of the late Robert Ashworth, in the city of Allegheny and McClure township, detailed description of which can be seen at the Auction House, No. 159 Federal street, Allegheny. Sale will commenced with the lot on the south western corner of Federal street and Nort Avenue, North Common. Special attention is directed to this large, important and attractive sale.

Dissolution.—The partnership heretofore existing between Marshall, Fulton & Boilman, manufacturers of heavy cordage, ropes, &c., warehouse 69 and 70 Water street, has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. A. M. Marshall has disposed of his interest in the business to the remaining partners, Messrs. E. M. Fulton and H. L. Boilman, who will continue the trade at the old stand. We wish the new firm a continuance of the patronage awarded the one just dissolved.

A Nuisance.—J.B. Williams, Esq., on behalf of the Board of Health, yesterday made information before Alderman Morrow, charging J. Kearney, residing on Wylie street, with maintaining a nuisance in the shape of an overflowing cess pool. The accused was fined two dollars and ordered to abate the nuisance.

Hearing Had.—Alderman Donaldson yesterday morning gave a hearing in the case of Wm. M'Kinley, charged on oath of Thos. Brown, of East Liberty, with aggravated assault and battery on Thomas Freeman, last week. Several witnesses were examined, and the hearing resulted in the defendant giving $.00 bail to answer at Court.

Get the Best.—The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of the great Triumph Cooking Stove, manufactured exclusively by the well known founders Bissell & Co., No. 235 Liberty street. The stove is manufactured for burning bituminous coal, and is among the very best ever brought out in this market.

Shoenberger & Co.—The card of this old and extensively known house appears in another column. The firm manufactures cut nails, boiler plate, sheet iron and patent hammered horse and mule shoes, the latter of a superior quality to any ever before introduced. Offices, 93 Water street and 116 Etna street.

Waived a Hearing.—Geo. R. Cochrane, Esq., prosecuted for assault and battery by Joseph E. Robinson, before Alderman McMasters, waived a hearing, yesterday, and gave bail for his appearance at the June session of the Court of Quarter Sessions for trial.

At his Post.—The active and persevering Assistant District Attorney John W. Riddell, Esq., is at his office in the second story of the Court House at all hours of the day. So far as he is responsible, the action of justice will not be tardy.

Crowded.—The office of Assistant District Attorney John W. Riddell was thronged all day yesterday with prosecutors. It is important that prosecutors be in constant attendance until their cases are reached.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 1867.

General Sheridan made military preparations to deal with an insurrection threatened at New Orleans yesterday, but the insurrection was avoided by suppressing the Charter election out of which it was likely to grow.

In conversation Gov. Geary strongly denounces the fraud the Republican leaders in the Legislature are practicing upon the people of the Commonwealth, in the matter of the so-called General Railroad Law. He says he will not sign it, if it shall pass both Houses. It is of no consequence what becomes of the bill. But it is essential to the Governor to vindicate his own character. He stands pledged to the people on this question, and will be judged by what he does. If he has regard to his honor, he will wash his hands of complicity, however remote it might be, with this swindle.

THE SOUTH.

It has been fashionable for Democratic leaders, while professing to believe in the essential and inalienable equality of all men, to display their wit, malice and vulgarity over the proposition to admit black Americans to the right of suffrage. They so did because they had an interest in pandering to the vile passions and prejudices of a considerable class of white people, who were nearest the negroes by lack of intelligence, refinement and social standing. That censurable habit is rapidly going out of use, and soon will be known no more. Not that the aforesaid leaders have become more scrupulous or decent than they were; but because a numerous and powerful body of voters has been created, the existence of which they dare not ignore, and to insult which would be absolutely fatal. In eleven of the Southern States the blacks have ballots in their hands; in Tennessee, by State action, and in the ten seceding States by law of Congress. In some of those States, events may speedily disclose that the political control is in their hands. Certainly, if they act together, in any one or in all of those eleven States, it will require the co-operation with them if only a small part of the whites to constitute a formidable majority.

In this new aspect of affairs it is instructive to notice with what earnestness the Northern democratic leaders join the Southern rebel leaders in recommending to their followers the necessity of "courting" the blacks. It is no longer to be rated as a high democratic accomplishment to be skilled in heaping unmeasured abuse and obloquy upon a race whose misfortunes have been accounted as crimes and whose defencelessness ensured impunity. From weakness that race has risen into strength. It has become, to an important extent, a dispenser of honors. It can lift up or put down. It can gratify the ambitions of aspiring democrats, or crush those ambitions into the very mire. The leaders will have little difficulty in coining the smoothest phrases, and in making even servile obeisance, where they have so much at stake. They are inheritors of the class that inspired Dryden's sarcasm,

"Politicians neither love nor hate."

They go for the main chance, no matter what means may be necessary.

But it may reasonably be conjectured that not a little tuition will have to be expended on the rank and file before they learn to bless where they have delighted to curse. It is hard to eradicate at once a custom so long indulged as to be ingrained into the nature of its devotees. A good deal will have to be excused on the score of lingering remains of the old depravity. Repugnancies which have consumed sixty years in engendering, cannot be overcome by a necromancer's incantation.

Meanwhile it may as well be remembered that the Union League has quietly extended its organization all over the Southern States. In some of them it embraces a respectable minority of the white voters. These, all along, had a good understanding with the blacks. As soon as the Military Governments, recently provided for, shall be actually established and in full operation, loyal men will experience less difficulty, and encounter diminished risks, in publicly declaring themselves, and in taking such measures as they may deem expedient.

Besides, the more conspicuous and influential classes of confessed rebels have had the right of voting and holding office taken from them in punishment of their offences. Hereafter they will be compelled to "take back seats." Political power has passed from their hands, not to return, and will be gathered up and held by new and mainly young men. Some of these new men may be under the dominion, less or more, of traditionary ideas and animosities, but these influences disappear sooner than superficial observers are wont to think. What fierce and bloody feuds swept along the coterminous boundary of England and Scotland! Not a trace of them remains except in musty legends. The British Crown has to-day no more loyal subjects than the Scotch. The old hatred died out long ago. By what desperate factions was France torn, and mangled towards the close of the last century! Eyes that witnessed the Reign of Terror are not yet closed in death. Where Frenchmen slaughtered each other in fiendish hate, their children and grand-children meet in concord to celebrate national triumphs. Last summer, Germany was "rent by civil feuds, and drenched in fraternal blood." Now the States that then met in sanguinary strife, make haste, in defiance of interposing treaties, to embrace each other, and blend their dissevering governments into one so mighty that it shall cover and defend all.

So long as doubt and uncertainty rested upon the project for stripping the rebel leaders of power under the reorganized government, new men hesitated to come forward. Old habits of deference, experience of the mighty sway exerted by the chiefs of the disloyal faction, fear of encountering a competition with which they were unable to cope—these, and cognate considerations, restrained them from independent efforts to take the political power into their own hands. All this is changed. The old leaders are powerless. New men must necessarily take their places. No fear need be entertained as to their coming forward, and asserting, as best they may, their different pretensions.

If the old party leaders, on both sides, here in Pennsylvania, should be set aside—no matter how arbitrarily, so that the exclusion was absolute and final—there would be little grief among the individuals whom they have overshadowed and kept in obscurity. There would be joy rather. Fresh vistas of hope and ambition would open before hundreds of men, which they would do and dare much to transform into reality. The men of the South were cast substantially in the same mold as men here. It is not in human nature—least of all, in the nature of politicians—to deplore and lament the taking off of rivals. Whoever watches carefully the new political movements at the South, will soon perceive abundant evidences of a serious struggle on the part of fresh sets for the control of public affairs. The set that links itself manfully with the best aspirations of the age; makes no concealments; and accepts no compromises; will certainly win the field and bear the palm.

DESTITUTION.

Poverty is the dark side of society. It is not peculiar to this age, or to one form of Civilization. Modern poverty has ameliorations, the thought of which would have filled ancient conservatism with indignation. Cannibalism no longer rears its horrid front, and the poor are not fattened for the shambles. The butchery of captives after battle is no longer general, though our late war furnished some sad examples, on the rebel side, of relapses into the old barbarism. Frequent wars for the sake of plunder; and the enslavement of the weak, no matter of what race or color, have ceased to be allowable. These enormities of the savage, the barbarous, the classic and the feudal periods, are no longer ingredients in the peculiar misery of the poor.

Among the uncivilized tribes of the tropics there is little or no poverty. The spontaniety of Nature keeps men and women from the pressure of absolute want, and takes from them, at the same time the most valuable incentives to exertion. The inertia comes not more from the torrid heat, than from the ease with which common wants are supplied. Labor is superfluous. If the civilization of harsher regions, with its multiplied artificial needs, should be introduced among the children of the sun, destitution would follow in the train.

Poverty, like other forms of suffering, plays an important part in the economy of the world. Look about you, in this country, and see who possess the earth. Enter stately cities, and see who inhabit the palaces. Here and there you will find the offspring of rich parents in the possession of continued wealth; but oftener the offspring of the comparatively poor. Why is this?

In Europe, among the same races, whose commingling here, we insist is producing the fairest and noblest type of manhood the world has seen, it is not uncommon for wealth, rank and abilities to descend in particular families for many generations. There wealth builds up families and holds them in permanent greatness. Here wealth eats into and corrupts the vital force of nearly all who achieve it. A man by superior energy rises out of poverty into wealth. You look for his children and grand-children, and you find them where he began. There are exceptions to this rule; but only exceptions.

A sufficient explanation of such constant phenomena cannot be found, as is sometimes attempted, in the abandonment here of the laws of primogeniture and entail. It is true that ordinarily when an American acquires a competency or a superabounding fortune, he lives in a manner equal to what he has. He induces upon all his children appetites, tastes and desires corresponding to his revenues. These wants, however artificial, are as imperious and exacting as any others. When the father dies, the portion of each is insufficient, and most of the heirs soon sink into obscurity, if not into actual want. In a certain city we once heard of three rich men dying, leaving wealth to the aggregate of nine millions. In eleven years all that remained was in the hands of sons-in-law who started poor, and that did not exceed three thousand dollars.

But passing by the good evolved out of poverty in the economy of the world, just as good is educed out of all other forms of evil, the question constantly occurs, Is poverty an essential, substantial and integral element in civilization? or is it an accidental and transient element, amenable to suppression? The answers we get from different individuals depend upon the views they take of certain larger subjects. Is evil inherent in the human nature, or is it transient, belonging not to the nature of man, but to the process of development? To pursue this inquiry would take us wide of the purpose we have in hand.

There are natural and organic causes of poverty. Not a few are born into the midst of want, ignorance, idleness, filthiness, intemperance, vice and crime. Few so born, ever get out of that sphere. Many great and prosperous men come of humble parentage; not one in a thousand, with vile surroundings, ever get beyond. Much permanent poverty comes from lack of physical or mental ability. In great herds of cattle the weakest always get crowded; many even unto death. Among men the stronger take care of themselves, riding on the top, while the weaker go under. There are also social causes, as idleness, wastefulness and intemperance. Of all, the latter is most prolific. So long as these causes remain, poverty will exist likewise.

At various times attempts have been made to so organize labor as to include and provide for all. Much well-intentioned and enthusiastic speculation has been indulged, but the returns so far have not been commensurate to the expectation. The poverty of one class seems to sink deeper as the riches of another class rises higher. Opulence and squalor confront each other, in equal excess. The richer the rich become, the deeper becomes the poverty of the poor. What horrible contrasts are presented in London and New York, the crowning types of modern civilization! How long shall this last?

By singular coincidence the funerals of Bishop Soule and Professor De Bow passed through the streets of Nashville at the same time, and both were consigned to the grave in the same hour.

—The Washington Leader mildly chronicles as an "accident," that a blind man and his wife, being ejected from a car, near Georgetown bridge, for having no money, the blind man, losing his equilibrium, was precipitated to the ground, a distance of about thirty-five feet, and so injured internally that he had to be carried home. That "accident" looks very much like an outrage.

—The Town Council of London, Madison county, Ohio, lately passed an ordinance prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors, and the town officers are enforcing it. All places where liquor is sold are declared nuisances; provision is made for closing them, and the owners of premises are made liable for fines and costs assessed against persons selling liquor thereon.

—There will be a blue tulip at the Paris Exposition.

The cable has informed us that Emil De Giordise, a journalist of Paris, had been fined $1,000, for a violation of the press laws, by the Correctional Court. It must be pleasant to enjoy the freedom of the French Press, which is after all nothing but tyranny. A correspondent of the Philadelphia Gazette furnishes the following account of how far newspapers enjoy liberty in France:

"A newspaper must furnish 80,000 francs caution money for good behavior and to liquidate fines and penalties incurred by "law." It is subjected to a stamp duty of four or two cents, according to size. It must every day deposit a number at the office of the government lawyers, to see whether it has said anything liable to "prosecution." The personal inviolability of deputies is not to protect them in matters connected with the press. The judgment of the Correctional Court, which is to try press cases, may be to the extent of one-half of the caution money, by way of fine, and may also deprive the individual condemned of his electoral rights, either as a voter or a candidate, for five years! Judgment for instigation to "crime," (such as treason, &c.,) involves immediate suppression. A second judgment for misdemeanor not only makes a journal liable to suspension for two months, and a third to suppression; and even a first condemnation may, in some such cases, involve both. So much for "liberty of the press!" but as to that of meetings, it is to exist for "all" questions which do not relate to politics, social economy, religion, or existing taxation. The exceptions, it will be seen, are large and sweeping, and leave but a small margin on which to practice the new privilege. No meetings are to be held in the open air, the influence of which appears to be considered of too expansive a character for the French temperament.

—The beet crop is immensely profitable in countries in which it is converted into sugar. This is apparent from the fact that in France alone its annual value is $50,000,000 in its raw state. In this country the beet crop was too inconsiderable in 1859 to be included in the census statistics.

—A National Democratic Convention has been called to meet at Louisville, Kentucky, on May 7th. This Convention was proposed by the recent Kentucky Democratic Convention, and favored by the Democratic Conventions held in Ohio, Connecticut and New Hampshire.

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE is prepared by the originator of the justly celebrated Coe's Cough Balsam. Mr Coe has never prepared a medicinal article for public and general use but what has stood the strongest tests and has always borne the palm of victory over every disease it has been certified to cure. Will you who are suffering from dyspepsia, indigestion, nausea, sick headache, cholera morbus, dysentery, and general debility of the whole system, try but a single bottle? We will never urge you again if we fail in this case. Our own knowledge of its merits the united testimony of all who have ever tried it, the encomiums of hundreds of our own neighbors, your duty to yourself, and the beneficial result, as certain as sunshine, all urgently, persistently urge you to try just one bottle. If what we say is not correct—if our statements concerning its wonderful virtues are not found to be true—if you do not say that the operation of the medicine is instantaneous and perfectly wonderful—we will renounce our profession as caterers to the public health, and retire from the field, admitting that we are incompetent to compound a medicinal preparation which would be entitled to your confidence.

SPREAD THE TRUTH.

Some medical men insist that it is undignified to advertise a remedy, however valuable it may be. Queer reasoning this. It is like saying that an article which the world needs should be hid in a corner—that benefits and blessings may be too widely diffused—that the means of protecting and restoring health should be a close monopoly, and not accessible to all. The argument is bad, it is worse than that; it is inhuman. Suppose HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—an absolute specific for dyspepsia, biliousness and nervous debility—had never been known beyond the repertoire of the faculty what would have been the consequence? Instead of curing and invigorating millions, the good effects of the preparation would have been confined to a comparative few. There is the highest authority for saying that light should not be hid under a bushel; that whatever is excellent should be placed as a city on a hill, where all men can take cognizance of it. It is upon this principle that the BITTERS have been advertised and continue to be advertised in every newspaper of any prominence in the western hemisphere, and thus the spontaneous testimonials in its favor have been translated into all written languages. Thousands enjoy perfect health to-day who would be languishing on beds of sickness if the newspapers had not spread the truth with regard to this unequalled invigorant and corrective far and wide. Suppose profit has been reaped from this publicity, is that any argument against it? If the public health has been protected; if lives have been saved; if the feeble have been strengthened and the sick restored, great good has been accomplished; and who so mean as to grudge to exertions thus directed their fair reward? mh8

THE HONEY OF WHITE PINE.

With that indomitable Yankee skill and genius peculiar to the people of New England, and worthy of the instinct of the honey-bee only, Dr. GEORGE W. SWETT, of Boston, has compounded a medicine out of the sweet inside bark of the white pine tree, which has a wide reputation in a large variety of diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and mucous surfaces and membranes generally, called "WHITE PINE COMPOUND."

Dr. Swett says that it is sweet and palatable, and is readily taken both by children and adults, and was originally known to the aborigines, who so named the forests of those States, and used it in a variety of diseases, especially those of scorbutic character. It is a sure cure for DIABETES, GRAVEL, ENURESIS, BLOODY AND MUCOUS URINE, and the troublesome malady known as albuminuria, or Bright's disease. Those who have tried in vain the various Buchus and diuretics, will find in Poland's White Pine Compound a remedy of superior efficacy and power.

Sold by the gross, dozen, or single bottle, at Dr. KEYSER'S, 140 Wood street. mh5

PROPOSALS.

PENNSYLVANIA

Agricultural Land Scrip

FOR SALE.

The Board of Commissioners now offer for sale 520,000 acres of Agricultural College Land Scrip, being the balance of the Scrip granted to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the endowment of Agricultural Colleges in this State.

Proposals for the purchase of this Land Scrip, addressed to "The Board of Commissioners of Agricultural Land Scrip," will be received at the Surveyor General Office, at Harrisburg, until 12 o'clock M.,

On Wednesday, April 10, 1867.

This land may be located in any State or Territory by the holders of the scrip upon any of the unappropriated lands (except mineral lands) of the United States, which may be subject to sale at private entry. Each piece of scrip represents a quarter section of one hundred and sixty acres, is issued in blank, and will be transferable without endorsement or formal assignment. The blank need not be filled until the scrip is presented for location and entry, when the party holding it can fill the blank and enter the land in his own name. Bids must be made per acre, and no bids will be received for less than one quarter section.

The Scrip will be issued immediately on the payment of the money to the Surveyor General. On all bids for a less quantity than 40,000 acres, one-third of the purchase money must be paid within ten days, and the remaining two-thirds within thirty days after notification of acceptance of the bid or bids by the Board of Commissioners.

TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 1867.

Pittsburgh Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

[Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]
MASSILLON, March 9, 1867.

The Conference met this morning and was opened with religious services, conducted by the venerable Thomas M. Hudson. Among all the honored names in the Conference, no one stands higher. He was one of the number embraced in the Conference at its organization in 1825, having entered the Baltimore Conference in probation in 1821. For forty-six years he has performed the rank of a Methodist preacher, and for forty-five years of that time has been on the effective list. For many years he labored in Pittsburgh, and wherever he has been, has been a pioneer for good.

The Committee on Church Extension made their report, and also the Conference Centenary Committee. The latter report showed that during the year, though all the appointments had not reported, upwards of four hundred thousand dollars had been contributed within the bounds of the Conference, in addition to the ordinary contributions made to other objects. It is confidently believed that when all the charges are heard from, the special contributions of this year will reach the magnificent sum of half a million dollars. Certainly this is a record of which any church may be proud. One hundred and thirty-three thousand of this amount was contributed to the Pittsburgh Female College, Allegheny and Mount Union Colleges. With the additions made this year throughout the connection to the endowments of its institutions of learning, the new churches erected and church debts liquidated, and the parsonages built, the church will begin the second century of its history with a wonderful augmentation of its power and appliances for the accomplishment of its mission. Who will cast the horoscope and tell the number that will set down under the spreading branches of the tree of Methodism a hundred years hence!

The first question, viz.: Who are admitted on trial? was taken up, and Allen H. Newcross, Robert J. White J. J. Excell, Andrew M. Gregg, George A. Sheets, James E. Williams, David R. Stevenson, W. L. Dixon, R. M. Freshwater, William H. Bayne, and Ransom H. Strahl, being duly recommended, were admitted. John E. Hollister was readmitted.

Great care is taken in the admission of members, more or less being rejected every year.

Dr. John P. Durbin, for many years the old and efficient Corresponding Secretary of the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, was introduced by the Chair, and for half an hour held the Conference spellbound while he detailed the financial condition of the Society. Whether on the platform or in the pulpit, he has few peers in this or any other continent. In the afternoon a Missionary meeting was held at which stirring addresses were made by Hiram Miller and W. H. Locke, both of whom are to go to your city the coming year, and Albert L. Long, referred to in a previous letter as the Missionary to Bulgaria. Revs. Miller and Locke, are men of ability and will give a good account of themselves in the future.

Among the many visitors present in the Conference room this morning, I noticed Colonel E. Ball, a prominent member of the Church in Canton, Ohio, and the inventor of the "World's Reaper and Mower," the best machine of its kind ever invented; Rev. Jesse Durbin, a relative of Dr. J. P. Durbin, and, like his namesake, an excellent preacher; and Rev. W. H. Kincaid, assistant editor of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate.

The Conference will pass strong resolutions of thanks on Monday morning, as the members have been entertained in princely style by the citizens of Massillon.

Though the appointments will not be announced until Monday morning, yet, as many of your readers are deeply interested in the matter, I append the list for the coming year. And here end the labors of your correspondent.

The Spring Bonnets and Hats.

The ladies are always thankful for any information in regard to the forthcoming fashions, hence they will be interested in the following item on the various styles of bonnets and hats prepared for the spring trade. It is said there are four prominent varieties of bonnets, viz: the "Dagmar," the "Princess," the "Maria Aluette," and the "Margaretta." The "Dagmar" is regarded as the queen of the season, which is one extreme of the series, of which the "Margaretta" is the other. It is a cross between a "sky scraper" and a "patch," having a shallow crown, ears decidedly mulish in longitude, a pert, uplifted bow, and a small flaring cape.

The "Princess" is a contracted "Dagmar," about half of the ears, bow and cape of the latter being absorbed in its crown. Taking the "Dagmar" as the maximum, the "Princess" is a healthy approximation towards nothing.

Of the "Maria Aluette" and "Margaretta," we can only say they are diminutive washbowls, regarded as great inventions now, but like most great inventions, so ridiculously simple, nobody ever thought of them before. Recall the scull caps of former days, and you have an intelligent idea of their shape.

In the hat line there is also a great similarity, the styles being only distinguishable by an extra curl of the rim or an inclination of the crown. The "Patti," "Ristori," "Florita," "Dexter" and "Gem" are the most popular varieties. All have shallow flat crowns, and narrow rims. The "Dexter," to use a nautical phrase, is a rakish looking craft, apparently scudding under bare poles. The rim is perhaps an inch-and-a-half wide, and does not turn up at the edges. The "Ristori" differs from the "Dexter" only in the turning up of the rim, giving it a heavier appearance. The rim of the "Gem" is turned up more than the "Ristori," is much the same, the crown meeting it at an angle of about forty-five degrees.

The hats are made of Milan, pearl, English, pedal and split straws. Gimp bonnets are much in vogue, plain and mottled.

The everlasting jet ornaments have given way to crystal and amber, with a decided preference for the latter. Bonnets and hats are loaded with amber, and flowers droop under its weight.

In ribbons and silks, lavender, pink and amber are the prevailing shades.

Catch Him.

The Guernsey County Times says: "A few weeks since we mentioned that some kind of a wild animal, supposed to be a panther, had several times been seen two or three miles east of this place. Since that time it has been seen by different persons and been run by hunters and hounds at different times, but it always eludes its pursuers. A meeting was held in the neighborhood it inhabits, a few evenings since, for the purpose of devising means for its capture, and it was determined by the meeting to offer a reward for the killing or capture of it. The plan adopted by the meeting to raise the money to pay the reward to be offered, was to form a company, each person joining it to pay one dollar, and the reward to be paid to no person not a member of the company."

Also, 12 acres adjoining the above, unimproved, for sale low. This piece is also all underlaid with coal.

The above three pieces of property lie between the Little Saw Mill Run and Steubenville Railroads, and the coal can be reached easily from either road. The coal alone is worth all that is asked for the entire property.

The improvements are a two-story Frame House with five rooms and good cellar, a Frame Bank Barn, 40x60 feet, and other out-buildings. There is on the place a good Young Apple Orchard; 130 acres cleared, balance in good timber; fencing generally good, well watered; underlaid with coal and limestone; convenient to churches, mills, schools and blacksmith shops, together with the personal property such as stock, implements, grain in the ground, &c. Possession given immediately.

Railroad, on which there is a good Two story Frame House, with six Rooms, a Barn, Carriage House, and other buildings; an Orchard of different fruit trees; it is underlaid with coal. There is a Salt Well on it in good order, producing 9 bbls. per day. This property is offered very cheap and good terms.

Also, a Farm of 132 acres, situated in Conemaugh township, Indiana county, Pa., about 2½ miles from the West Penn'a. Railroad. The improvements are a good Two Story Brick Dwelling, with six Rooms, a Cellar, a No. 1 Frame Bank Barn, 60 by 40; a fine Apple Orchard with a variety of different fruit trees, a good Cider Press; fencing generally good; well watered. About 140 acres cleared, the residue in good timber land, and a good six foot vein of coal under the whole farm. A portion of the purchase money will be taken for well located lands in Nebraska. This property, if sold before the 30th of March, will be sold at the low price of 25 dollars per acre. Possession on the 1st day of April, A. D. 1868.

Also, an Excellent Farm of 160 acres, of which 90 acres are under cultivation, situate in Christian county, Illinois. Improvements—a new frame dwelling containing 5 rooms; about 400 choice fruit trees, good fencing, &c. It lies within 2 miles of the Illinois Central R. R.; will be sold on reasonable terms. City property taken in part exchange if desired.

Also, 10 Lots in southern Suburbs of Chicago, each Lot 30 by 125, in Kedzier's sub-division of lots. These lots lie one mile North of the junction of St. Louis and Alton and Michigan Southern R. District Court.

Before Hon. Moses Hampton.

DOLLAR SAVINGS BANK.

J. H. Baldwin, Esq., presented a certificate of J. B. D. Meeds, Secretary of Dollar Savings Bank, setting forth that at a stated meeting of the Board of Trustees of said Bank, held on the 8th instant, Robert C. Loomis having received seventeen votes, and Ormsby Phillips thirteen votes, were elected Trustees in place of John Orr and William Douglass, whose seats had been declared vacant at a previous meeting of the Board. The Court ordered the publication of the election for one week, with leave to Mr. Baldwin, as Solicitor of the Bank, to move for its confirmation.

COAL DIGGERS VS. PIT OWNER.

Daniel Sweeny vs. N. J. Bigley. Plaintiff represented that he bargained with defendant to dig coal in his coal pit at the rate of five cents per bushel, the coal so dug to be drawn or hauled out of the pit in cars or wagons, which were furnished by defendant and represented as holding twenty-nine bushels each, whereas, in truth and in fact, the cars or wagons so furnished were required to be filled up, or "heaped," and held on an average thirty-six bushels and more, each, and that although by the requirements of Act of Assembly the cars or wagons should have measured and branded by the sealer of weights and measures for Allegheny county, at least once in each year, the defendant neglected to have this done. It was further averred that from November 1st, 1864, until March, 1866, the defendant misrepresented the quantity of coal dug in his mine, in the manner stated, and thereby defrauded the plaintiff, depriving him of the benefit and advantages which he might otherwise have derived from his wages, and whereby he had been damaged to the extent of about two hundred dollars, in which amount the plaintiff claimed the defendant was justly indebted to him.

For the defence it was admitted that the plaintiff was in the employ of defendant as a miner of coal, and that the price of digging was as stated, the number of bushels to be ascertained by the number of cars; but it was claimed that the cars of defendant were measured and branded as containing twenty-nine bushels, by the official measurer, and also that such was the capacity of the cars; that this the plaintiff knew when he entered the defendant's employ, and that the contract between the parties and their course of dealings had reference to such official measurement, and the quantity of coal for which the plaintiff was to be paid was to be ascertained and determined by the number of cars mined by him; that during the time the plaintiff was in the defendant's employ there were numerous settlements, and always by the car; and when the plaintiff ceased to work for the defendant, there was a final settlement, and the plaintiff paid in full, and all that he claimed.

Evidence was adduced, for the plaintiff that the cars of the defendant, although branded to contain twenty-nine bushels, contained fully thirty-six bushels when "heaped," as was required; also, that some of the cars had been "cut down," or the board on the inside of the cars at the slope at the top had been shaved off, which increased the capacity of the wagon, although as to this there seemed to be some difference of opinion; also that the capacity was increased by the bulging out of the end gate. There was also some evidence offered as to the screening process. It was stated that the proportion of nut coal to each car was five to six bushels, which was screened at the "tipple." In a difficulty which occurred between the defendant and his miners—the miners claiming that as defendant proposed to reduce the price of digging one cent. per bushel, he should make a proportionate reduction of the rents required of the miners for the houses they occupied—some conversation passed between the plaintiff and the defendant. The former claimed pay for over measure, the cars, as he believed, containing more than the brand mark, when the latter said that he (the plaintiff) was not paid by the bushel, but by the car.

The case was on trial at adjournment. M. Swartzweider and John Coyle for plaintiff, M. W. Acheson for defendant. Five other cases, in all of which Mr. Bigley is defendant, are pending.

Oyer and Terminer, &c.

Before Hon. James P. Sterrett.

This Court met Monday forenoon at ten o'clock, and proceeded with jury trials.

GIVEN A VERDICT.

Our readers will recollect the circumstances of a recent Allegheny embezzlement case, (published first in the GAZETTE,) a young man named William G. Harbison, employed as clerk, being charged with appropriating from the store of James Caldwell goods to the amount of about three thousand dollars. The case was called by Colonel Duff, the District Attorney, who, after a jury had been sworn, stated the Commonwealth was unable to make out a case. The jury therefore, as a matter of form, rendered a verdict of not guilty.

ASSAULTS AND BATTERIES.

One of the Smith family, his first name William, was next arraigned on a charge of aggravated assault and battery. Last Christmas night he enjoyed himself to the extent of disturbing the peace, fell into the hands of the police, and soon found himself at the tombs. He was placed in a cell to keep company with a like unfortunate, William M'Connell, who, on the principle of "first come," &c., persisted in occupying exclusively the limited accommodations in the cell for sleeping. Smith was averse to "taking the floor," and disputed possession of the more comf[illegible]able bench, [illegible] the

BOARDING HOUSE THIEF.

In November last William Lomax and John H. Adley, colored men, were boarding at Mrs. Strickland's in Clay alley. Lomax disappeared and also quite a number of articles, comprising nearly the entire wardrobe of Adley. Suspicion fell upon Lomax, and when arrested at Mrs. Lancaster's, on Webster street, a number of the missing garments were found in his possession, including a vest and pair of pantaloons which he had on his person. These facts, in addition to a confession of guilt, were adduced on the trial of Lomax for larceny. It also appeared that others of Mrs. Strickland's boarders had portions of their wardrobe appropriated by Lomax. The jury found a verdict of guilty. Remanded for sentence.

STOLE A PAIR OF GLOVES.

William Lewis, under bail, was called for trial on a charge of stealing a pair of gloves at a tavern in the Diamond, belonging to Daniel Downer. It appeared that the accused, with a companion, went to the tavern at a late hour on the night of the 15th of January for lodging. They were accommodated, paying for bed and breakfast in advance. After they had retired Mr. Downer missed his gloves, and suspecting that the lodgers had appropriated them, policemen were called and both arrested, but Lewis only retained in custody, the gloves having been found under his pillow, and he maintaining a sullen silence concerning the matter, whilst his associate denied all knowledge of the article stolen. The defense was "guilty, but drunk," and previous good character. It appeared that when awakened by the search for the gloves, the defendant said that rather than be disturbed he would pay for them—he was drunk, wanted sleep, and did not want to be annoyed. Stress was laid upon the fact that the defendant's companion had not been held, and also the fact of his absence at the trial, where his testimony might be of much service. The defendant's drunkenness availed him, the jury finding a verdict of not guilty.

A SINGULAR CASE.

Peter Suter vs. A. W. Holthouse. This was a singular case. The indictment was for assault and battery. Mr. Holthouse testified that on the evening of the 21st of February last, about half past six o'clock, he was driving a covered wagon across the St. Clair street Suspension Bridge. Upon arriving at the Allegheny, or north end, his attention was attracted by loud talking and persons calling to him to halt. He looked out and asked one of the men what was wanted, and who he was. No reply was made except "G— d— you get out, I'll let you know who I am." He then drove off at a rapid rate, and after he had gone several hundred yards, one of the party who accosted him on the bridge (identified as Suter) caught up to the wagon, seized the horse by the lines, and endeavored to pull witness out of the wagon. Witness struck him several times with his whip, but was finally pulled over the front of the wagon on the shafts, and the horse being frightened at the noise, ran off. When the horse was stopped, the witness went back for his hat, but his assailants had fled with his companions. He followed them to the market-house and demanded his hat, when Suter made demonstrations as if he designed striking him. Mr. Holthouse says he had never seen the parties before, and could imagine no reason for being assailed as he was, unless it was for the purpose of highway robbery. Suter being the only one recognized as actively participating in the affair, was the only one on trial. William Snyder was one of those with him, and was held to answer by the magistrate, but the grand jury ignored the bill against him.

For the defense William Snyder was called. He met Suter on Federal street, having been overtaken by him, and observed him having words and a scuffle with a man in a wagon. Suter picked up the prosecutor's hat and came on the sidewalk with it, when witness gave him his own, Suter then throwing away the hat he had picked up. Did not see Suter strike or attempt to strike. Saw prosecutor striking several times with his whip. At the Market house Holthouse brandished his whip several times in a threatening manner.

On trial at adjournment.

Court of Common Pleas.

Before Hon. E. H. Stowe.

D. H. Rhodes vs. Joseph H. Porter. The parties were running the steamboat "Robert Lee," and had chartered from Joseph Lofink a model barge, contracting to return the same in good condition or pay the full value thereof. The barge was damaged and a judgment for the value was obtained and paid in full, as alleged, by the plaintiff. This action is brought to recover one-half of the amount. A verdict for the plaintiff for the sum of $433 73 was rendered.

D. H. Lewis vs. J. McGovern and James Rees, owners of the tow-boat "Little Jim Rees." This was an action to recover the value of two thousand bushels of coal, alleged to have been lost in consequence of negligence and breach of contract on the part of defendants. The defendants had contracted, in November, 1865, to tow two flats of coal, belonging to the plaintiff, to Oil City, for a stipulated price, as soon as the Allegheny river was in good navigable condition. They failed, as is alleged, to comply with the terms of the contract, and by reason thereof the boats were left moored on the river bank, and in December of the same year they were sunk. By the sinking of the boats, and the failure to fulfill the contract, the plaintiff claims that he lost two thousand dollars, and brings action to recover the amount. On trial. McConnell and Schoyer for plaintiff, and Barton for defendants.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }

The following are the New York stock quotations for to-day: Gold, 135¼; 1881 bonds, 109¾; Five Twenties, old, 109¾; Five Twenties, '65, 107⅜; do new, 106⅝; Seven Thirties, 105⅝. Michigan Southern Railroad, 72½; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 82½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 96; Erie, 59½; Chicago and Northwestern, 35½; do preferred, 63⅝; New York Central, 103¾; Chicago and Rock Island, 96⅞.

—The contraction of the currency since the publication of the debt statement previous to the last one, amounted to $6,937,274, of which $5,181,464 were in plain legal tenders, and $1,755,810 in compound legal tender notes. The funding of Seven-Thirties is proceeding rapidly enough to secure the conversion of the August series at maturity, together with a large amount of the compound notes. The Treasury balance is ample for all purposes, and the Secretary is in a position where he can steadily retire the plain legal tenders to the extreme amount allowed by law.

—Mr. Cisco, late Assistant Treasurer of the United States at New York, has written a very elaborate and able letter on the subject of the National finances which is attracting general attention. The views he expresses are remarkably clear and well put. Among other things, he speaks of the management of the Treasury in this wise:

> The Treasury has had since the war, and has now, no fixed policy. What it means to do from day to day is a matter of conjecture; the result is uncertainty and doubt in the public mind to a dangerous extent—dangerous, because uncertainty and doubt may some day ripen into distrust. If it wishes to inspire confidence, the policy of the Treasury must be simple, comprehensive, direct, plain open, and permanent. This is almost as important as that it should be wise. There is no need of any complicated machinery such as is commonly known as financiering. It is safe, I think, to assume of any scheme for our finances, that if it is complicated it will work badly.

It is reported that the methods of administering the treasury will be revised during the coming summer months, and that the regulation of the greenback currency, the selling of gold, and the negotiation of long bonds for short date obligations, will be put on an improved basis, so as to secure more publicity and swifter progress. What foundation there may be for this report does not appear.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
MONDAY, March 11, 1867. }

The produce markets were moderately active to-day, there being a fair volume of business in the aggregate, though there is yet plenty of room for improvement. So far, however, as values are concerned, there are no changes worthy of special notice.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet, but held firmly at $2,60 for No. 1 Spring, and $2,80 for prime Red Winter. Barley is in demand at 95 to $1 for No. 1 Spring, and Rye is wanted at $1,30, though there are but few buyers at anything above this figure. Oats quiet but steady, with regular sales in store at 50 to 53. Corn is quiet and unchanged at 68 to 70, on wharf and track.

FLOUR—Is steady with fair local demand but unchanged. We continue to quote at $12 to $12,50 for good to choice Spring Wheat brands; $13,50 to $14,50 for Winter Wheat, and $16 to $17 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $7 to $7,25, and Buckwheat at $5,50 per bbl.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is a shade firmer, and we now quote at 10 for Shoulders, 11½ for Ribbed Sides, and 15 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard 12½ to 13, and Mess Pork, $21 to $21,50.

SEEDS—In rather better demand but unchanged: sale of 40 bush Cloverseed at $8,50, and 20 bush Timothy at $3. Flaxseed is in demand at $2 85.

BUTTER—Is in rather better demand and a shade firmer; Roll may be quoted at 25 to 30 for common to prime, and 31 to 32 for choice. Sale of 5 bbls inferior at 20, and 6 half bbls prime at 28.

EGGS—In rather better demand, and fresh packed sell readily at 22.

HAY—Is a shade firmer, in consequence of a falling off in the arrivals, but prices are unchanged; may be quoted at $18 to $22 for common to strictly prime—sale of 2 cars at $20.

APPLES—Dull but unchanged. Regular sales in store at $3 to $4 for good to choice.

POTATOES—Continue dull but unchanged; regular sales in store at 75 to 80 per bushel.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
MONDAY, March 11, 1867. }

CRUDE—There was apparently a stronger feeling in the market to-day, and we have reason to believe that the sales were larger than usual, and that, too, at an advance, but for reasons best known to those interested, no report was made of the sales effected at an advance. We can report the following: 100 at 5¾; 100, to arrive at 5¾; 375, on the spot, at 6; 200 at 11⅜, packages included, and 50 bbls "amber," at 20. We also heard of a sale of 1200 bbls, to arrive, at 6⅛, and it was hinted that other sales had been made at the same figure. At Oil City the market is weak and lower—sales at $1,75 to $1,80. The eastern advices are unimportant—so that it will be seen there is no reliable basis on which to establish an advance, and it is altogether probable that the little "flurry" which was got up to-day will soon subside.

REFINED—The transactions in bonded oil were unusually large to-day, the reported sales reaching in the aggregate fifteen thousand five hundred barrels, but, we are sorry to say, prices are no better. Messrs. Tack & Bro. sold eight thousand five hundred barrels, standard white, and all sold on account of Pittsburgh refiners: 5000 bbls, to be delivered, 1000 each month, from August to December, at an average of 30 cts; 500 for June, at 28; 500 for July, at 28; 500 do do, at 28; 500 for August, at 28; also 500 each for June, July and August at 28. We can also report 500 for March, at 27; and 500 for June, 500 for July, and 500 for August, at 28; and 5000, to run one thousand each month from August to December, on private terms. The best offer to-day for prime light straw to white, for immediate delivery in Philadelphia, was 25½, and we are cognizant of an offer to sell standard white, for May, at 27. Free oil is dull and unchanged.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Fisher & Bro.	4618	Jas. Wilkins	217
Brewer & Burke	244	W. P. Logan	101
W. McCutcheon	52	C. Berringer	400

New York Cattle Market.

NEW YORK, March 11.—Receipts of 4,727 beeves, 12,216 sheep and lambs, and 18,648 hogs. Beeves—The supply early in the week was rather larger than needed, and the market barely sustained itself at the figures of last Monday, in fact there were some sales at a decline from that day's sales, so holders at Bergin Hill and Communipaw lost some money, and the light rains at Albany, coupled with better weather brought about a more cheerful disposition among buyers, who on Monday were expected to purchase more freely. Arrivals for Monday's market were about 1,500 head of fair average grades, owners of which held stock very firm and at extreme prices, but finding it useless to hold them too high, gave way, and there were ready sellers at an advance of about ¾c in prices. Poor to medium Cattle, 12@13c; medium to fair Steers, 13½@14½c, good Steers and fat Oxen, 14¾@16c; prime Steers, 16@17c; majority of sales at 14¾@16¾c; average price, 15¾c; a few choice sold at 17@17½; poorest Cattle brought 12@13c. Consequent upon the improved state of the wool market and better quality of stock, Sheep—The trade improved in tone and sales were making to-day as high as 10½c for prime Canada stock. LATER.

The week opens with a better feeling in financial circles and an increased disposition to speculate for the rise at the Stock Exchange. The monetary situation is without any decided change, although capital is offered more freely. The weekly Bank Return is very favorable. Gold opened firmly but became weaker as the day advanced. The Government is selling almost daily but not fully up to the receipts for customs.

The railway speculation opened firmly at the open board and gained strength at the stock exchange; after the regular call market it became very buoyant in the long room, and a large business was transacted in leading shares. The greatest interest was on Erie common shares; which rose to 61⅞ amid considerable excitement; the balance left was up from ¼ to 1 in sympathy with the present movement in this stock, which attracts a great deal of attention, and the general impression is that the veteran director has once more entered the market as Bull, before any demand is made. The New York stock market was lower at the one o'clock board, Erie taking the lead, selling down at 61; after call Erie fell to 60⅝ but rallied to 61½, which caused a better feeling generally. The market was generally lower as compared with higher points, but firm at reduced quotations; the number of outside buyers are steadily increasing, and there was more activity and excitement than for a long time. The Directors of the Hudson River road, recommend increased capitol stock to $139,374,000 for extra depots, double track, &c.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was apparently at a stand last evening with nine feet in the channel. The weather yesterday was mild but cloudy, with every appearance of more rain. Business is moderately active at the landing, though, there is yet plenty of room for improvement.

There are many things about the Great Republic steamboat which will attract much attention from boat-builders throughout the country. Where all the art and superior mechanism of a great industrious city is brought into requisition, as in the case of the Great Republic, the result must be grand and flattering to all interested in the welfare of Pittsburgh. We have already spoken of several departments of the boat, and to-day may be permitted to refer to the massive boilers which have been put in their place by those master mechanics, Morrow & Barnhill, proprietors of the O'Hara Boiler Works, corner of Liberty and Second streets. These mammoth generators of steam, as pretty jobs as ever left this port, are seven in number, exclusive of a "nigger." The boilers are each forty-four inches in diameter and twenty-eight feet long, containing four flues. They are manufactured of the best quality of "C H. No. 1" iron, in Morrow & Barnhill's best style of workmanship. We ask our neighbors here and elsewhere to closely inspect the workmanship of these best of made boilers and with us award the enterprising manufacturers the credit due the job. Morrow & Barnhill were also the contractors for the pipes about the boat and the towering chimneys which are too large to be put up till the bridges between here and Cincinnati are passed. The workmanship on these also bears the impress of superiority. They are seventy feet high and eighty inches in diameter. Only thirty-four feet of them has thus far been erected, the remainder to be put up at Cincinnati. The center or "cross bars" are also finished, and weigh fifteen hundred pounds. They will present an unique and beautiful appearance when placed in proper position, being liberally decorated with golden stars and a mammoth globe being fixed in the centre. The work turned out by Messrs. Morrow & Barnhill in fitting up this great queen of the waters will reflect the highest credit upon Pittsburgh skill and mechanism. They are now ready to enter into new contracts for boilers for use on land or water, and we take pleasure in commending them to the patronage of our friends.

There has not been no arrivals or departures aside from the regular packets. The Argosy is due here from Cincinnati to-day, and will return again to-morrow at noon.

The Sherman, Captain G. N. Baker, is the regular line boat for St. Louis, and she will be ready to take her departure about the latter part of the week.

The America, Capt. Golding, is filling up slowly for Nashville, and the Glendale, Capt. Hare, is loading as an independent packet for St. Louis and the Missouri river.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. J. H Lightner, with Mr. J. D. Young in the office, is up for Cincinnati and Louisville, leaving on Wednesday without fail. The Kate will take freight through to Louisville without reshipping.

The Savanna, Capt. McGowan, is loading for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi, and will be ready to take her departure to-day, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind.

The Great Republic, Capt. Donaldson, will not get off on Thursday as expected, but she will leave on Saturday for New Orleans without fail. On Friday she will be thrown open to visitors, and if the weather is at all favorable, we expect to see considerable of a crowd on that day.

The Louisville Democrat thinks Pittsburgh, after building the Great Republic, will be exhausted of lumber. Perhaps so. If we are, we can import the knotty pines of the Louisvillians after the "Great Republic" is seen at their port, and their boat building glory is taken out of the "Richmond."

The Ida Rees No. 2 arrived from Oil City, and will return this evening. There are but three boats in the trade the Ida Rees, Echo and Urilda. The Peerless and Belle have been sold out of the line within the past few days, and the Echo and Urilda have been undergoing repairs—the latter boat is again ready for business, and will, we presume, at once take her place in the line. The Peerless and Belle are being transformed and remodled somewhat, and will, it is said, load for the Upper Missouri gold regions. The Echo is on the dock.

The Pine Grove left Cincinnati for Wheeling on Saturday, and the Kate Robinson and Importer were advertised to leave there for Pittsburgh on Monday. The Ida Stockdale, en route from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, was at Cairo on Saturday, and the Ezra Porter, en route from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, passed Evansville the same day.

The towboat A. J. Baker, en route from New Orleans to Pittsburgh, was at Cairo on Friday, as was also the Silver Lake No. 4, en route from St. Louis to Pittsburgh.

On the 22d of August, 1861, the Sam Orr, then plying between Evansville and Paducah, was seized at the latter place by a party of armed men and was afterwards taken up the Tennessee River and burned by the Confederates. The owner W. H. McClurg, has brought suit in the United States Court against the city of Paducah for the value of the boat and cargo, estimated at $30,000. The case was called at Louisville, on Thursday, and plea filed. The decision will be looked for with interest, as it will decide a number of other suits of similar character.

Relative to the "Richmond" the Richmond (Va.) Examiner, of the 2d, says: "It has been called the Richmond in compliment to our city; and some of our ladies, appreciating the compliment, have determined to present the Messrs. Neal with a beautiful flag for their steamer. Wm. F. Corkery, Esq., of the Spottiswood hotel, has taken the matter in hand, and we learn that a sufficient amount has been subscribed to purchase the flag, and that it will be ready for presentation in a short time. An interesting correspondence between the ladies and gentlemen of this city, who have gotten this acknoledgement of the compliment to our city in naming the steamer, may be expected in a short time."

The St. Louis Democrat says: Chicago sends freight past Saint Louis for New Orleans. It is shipped by railroad to Peoria. The Illinois Packet Company's steamers tow the barges of the Mississippi Transportation Company from this port to Peoria, where the Chicago freight—grain, flour, &c—is put into them. They are towed back to St. Louis, and thence to New Orleans without breaking bulk. In this manner a large amount of freight will this year be diverted from the Illinois Central railroad. The barges of the Mississippi Valley Transportation Company bring up on their return from New Orleans considerable freight for Chicago in their barges which will be again towed to Peoria, where freight for New Orleans will be in readiness with which to reload them.

We extract the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Sunday:

Mr. Osborn Devinney, an old and well-known Nashville pilot, died at his residence in Newport, yesterday morning, at two o'clock, after a long and severe illness. At 'Squire Marchant's office, yesterday morning, quite a large crowd of steamboatmen gathered to hear the decision of the suit now pending between Messrs. Geo. L. Johnston & Co., and Captain Alf. Stein, of the P. W. Strader, the suit having been brought against the latter by the former for the recovery of fifty dollars, the amount of an agency bill. The decision was not given yesterday, but will be rendered to-morrow morning. The suit is interesting to steamboatmen, and we patiently await the result. Lieutenant T. S. Royse acted as Capt. Stein's attorney. The John W. Garrett left New Orleans on Wednesday for St. Louis, where she has 1000 tons of iron ore engaged for Steubenville, Ohio. Jerry Whitten and Elbert Williamson went out pilots on the Pine Grove. W. S. Shinkle makes a pleasure excursion to Pittsburgh. The late rains have been general throughout the State of Arkansas, and the consequence has been very high water in all the rivers, the Arkansas, White and Ouachita in some places over-running their banks. The small creeks and bayous have become large streams, almost entirely cutting off communications between the capital and the various counties. At Batesville, Arkansas, White river was twenty-six feet above low water mark, and the islands opposite the town were completely lost. Little Red river, last week, had reached a point fully six feet higher than any rise within the memory of the oldest inhabitants. At Searcy and vicinity, fences, stock, cotton, mills, barns and houses were swept away, the entire bottoms being inundated. A warehouse at Searcy was carried off, with about $2,000 worth of goods. No loss of life is reported, but many narrow escapes are recounted. The bridges over all the creeks have been more or less damaged. The Bostona yesterday reshipped 400 bbls pork and 213 plows on the Wauanita for New Orleans. The Bostona on Thursday, made the run to New Richmond, against the flood, in one hour and thirty-six minutes. She was timed by Col. A. Burns. Capt. Thos. Shuman arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday, and resumed command of the Wauanita, leaving for New Orleans on Monday.

MISCELLANEOUS.

LARGE SALE OF

KANSAS LANDS,

ON TUESDAY, THE 2d DAY OF APRIL, 1867, will be offered

AT PUBLIC SALE.

At the Eldridge House,

IN THE CITY OF

Lawrence, Kansas,

ABOUT 155,000 ACRES OF LAND,

Situate in the Counties of LEAVENWORTH, WYANDOTTE, JEFFERSON and DOUGLASS, and known as the

"Delaware Reserve."

These lands are directly on the main line of the UNION PACIFIC RAILWAY, EASTERN DIVISION.

The Branch of the same ROAD FROM LEAVENWORTH TO LAWRENCE PASSES THROUGH THEM, and the railroad from St. Louis to Leavenworth runs along their eastern border.

IN FERTILITY, LOCATION AND ABUNDANCE OF TIMBER AND WATER, these lands are the FINEST IN THE STATE.

By the treaty with the Delawares in 1860 the Indian title to the "Reserve" was extinguished, and since that date many farms have been improved, and churches, school houses, grist and saw mills erected, and many other improvements made thereon.

The climate of Kansas is remarkably healthy, and to farmers and settlers these lands offer

Greater Inducements than any Others in the West.

Also, at the same place, immediately after the disposition of the above lands, will be sold about

28,000 ACRES OF LAND,

Situate in the Southeastern part of the "SAC AND FOX RESERVE," in the county of Franklin, Kansas.

Also, a large number of TOWN LOTS AND BLOCKS in the towns of NORTH LAWRENCE, TONGANOXIE and PERRY.

The sale will commence on April 2d, 1867, and will continue from day to day until all the lands above named have been disposed of. The lands will be offered in tracts to suit purchasers.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash and balance in two equal annual payments, with 6 per cent. interest thereon from date of purchase.

E. M. BARTHOLOW, Agent.
